Press Release

The Atlanta Pride Committee, Inc. announces the theme for the 2008 PRIDE event

Your Vote...Your Rights...Your Future

Atlanta, GA November 16, 2007 At the Annual General Meeting of the organization, held November 10th, the theme was selected for the '08 Atlanta Pride Festival and Parade. Realizing that the Presidential elections take place in November of '08, the Committee's interest was to motivate Atlanta's LGBT community to let their voice be heard through their vote. Following last year's theme which focused on Human Rights from a global perspective, this year's theme brings the focus on LGBT Human Rights home.

"The idea is to motivate folks to really think about their future, and how they can work towards securing a future that ensures they attain all rights provided to citizens of the U.S.... this starts by exercising the right to vote!. So the process to narrow down the ideas and condense them into a theme was accomplished pretty easily" stated Executive Director Donna Narducci.

The next step is a call for a design that interprets the theme and can be used on event merchandise, and any publicity about the '08 event. To submit a logo design, please go to the Atlanta Pride website for more information:
